Los Angeles, California: Sunday, July 2, 2006 – Saturday, July 8, 2006 the Pan African Technical Association, PATA (www.pataus.org) is an association of volunteers, supporters and friends who share a deep rooted interest in assisting Mother Africa in the positive development of its People, Land and resources is conducting it's third book drive for Ethiopia during the Ethiopian Soccer Tournament at the Los Angeles Coliseum. In order to achieve this mission PATA garners the generous talents of volunteer and financial resources and implements educational, scientific and technical projects and programs for the benefit of Africa and its people. Please come and support PATA's third book drive along with the Ethiopian Soccer Federation in North America, by bringing books for levels Kinder Garden to 12 grade & University level books that teach: Reading, Writing, Science, and History by bringing $1 and 1 book. We have listed the names and addresses of drop off sites at the soccer tournament and businesses who have agreed to give us their generous support. Additionally your books and your $1 per each book can be dropped off at our booth at the soccer tournament.

Tell all your friends, family and everyone you know! Come and make a difference and see what happens when we come together.
