Addis Ababa: May 11, 2018

Ethiopian Holidays, the tour operator wing of Ethiopian Airlines, is pleased to announce the launching of its newly revamped website.

The new website avails accessible, affordable and attractive tour packages to Ethiopian Airlines' major tourist destinations in Ethiopia and its vast international network.

Announcing the launch of the newly designed website, Ethiopian Group CEO, Tewolde GebreMariam, remarked, "As part of our efforts to boost tourism to different attraction sites in Ethiopia – Land of Origins – and leisure destinations throughout our vast network, Ethiopian Holidays has been offering different tour packages for our transit passengers and the international travelling public, tailoring the packages to meet their taste and schedule.

To cater for the evolving demands of tourists and boost their leisure experience, we have now revamped the website of Ethiopian Holidays with users' experience and feedback in mind. With the new website, visitors can easily find our standard tour packages, and can also enquire for tailor-made packages that suit their interest. They can also book and pay online more quickly and easily. The new website has an enhanced design, improved functionality and richer content focused on Ethiopian Holidays' goal to provide accessible, affordable and attractive tour packages."

The new website has gone online as of May 1, 2018. The site is available for all at the same address with the previous site: www.ethiopianholidays.com.
